WHEREAS, September 1, 1929, marked the entry into matrimonial bliss for Harry and Flossie Brown; and,

WHEREAS, Close family ties, occasioned by the presence of love and respect in the home, will enhance spiritual qualities and a faith in God among family members; and,

WHEREAS, The improvement of home life can do much to prevent unnecessary suffering, pain and hardship in our society, which leads to the development of high moral principles; and,

WHEREAS, Harry and Flossie Brown have reached their Fiftieth Anniversary, a milestone in their lives which few of us can hope to attain; and,

WHEREAS, We in South Dakota are fortunate and proud to have among our citizenry persons of the caliber of Harry and Flossie Brown; and,

WHEREAS, As Governor it is fitting and proper to hope that their special day will be one filled with joy and friendship, and that it will bring them both many happy memories:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 1, 1979, as

HARRY AND FLOSSIE BROWN DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Nine
